Hi

Thanks for sharing. That's very balanced, and interesting, since I've seen this group being a lot less open about biotech in other settings. Karl and al, clearly your engagement paid off.

Best,

Isabelle

Dear gene drive friends,

Here's an official voice of reason from a major, global conservation leader.

Thought you'd appreciate this.

IC GBIRd advisory team,

Position statement on biotechnology from Environmental Defense Fund. Royden, Heath and I (and I may be missing others) had conversations with Doria leading up to the development of this position.

Cheers,
Karl

Hi. Just wanted to let you know that EDF's position is now up on edf.org: <https://www.edf.org/our-position-biotechnology>. I don't think it will surprise you.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks,

Doria
