Dear Paul,

I am Federica, working with Eric Welch, Todd Kuiken and Margo Bagley on the synthetic biology project.

Thank you so much for your availability to participate in our project and to conduct an interview with us this week.

To this regards, please find attached the consent form for the interview. As this is a university research, we are asked to provide you detailed information about the content of the interview, confidentiality policies, as well as information of your rights during the interview.

Please, read it before the interview as we will ask your agreement before starting.

Thank you again for your help,

Federica
